Hi Lawrence,

Please find attached and hereby served a Text Order from the Court related to Blockquarry's Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction. Please note the Court's admonishment against the dissipation and/or waste of the property at issue in this case. In light of this Text Order and Blockquarry's concern over the possible dissipation of the deposit funds, as discussed in its prior pleadings, we would ask that you please confirm that BPW has no plans to dissipate the deposit funds or cause any waste to the personal property on the premises until after pertinent adjudication. Taylor and I would be glad to discuss this with you; please give either of us a call at your earliest convenience.

Best,

Will
